

POKHARA

The Retreat - Nepal

Tranquility is assured from your exclusive residence perched high above Fewa Lake capturing undisturbed views the length of the Annapurna Himal.

The Retreat is located on a treed & grassy plateau off the south-west shore of Fewa Lake and surrounded by views of traditional Nepalese farms and daily life amidst paddy fields, planting and harvest as a handful of neighbours scattered across the hillside go about their chores of the day. As you'd imagine the pace of life is relaxed and in tune with its surroundings.

Your private gardens and treed terraces offer an uninterrupted 180 degree panorama of the lake with a cool breeze and before you the changing hues of the Himalayas. Machapuchhare with a half dozen other 7,000 meter peaks at your doorstep is a daily spectacle. Access to the property is only by boat and a short walk, there is no traffic.

With Pokhara as a distant eco across the water the sun, stars and mountains are your companions whilst your private boat and boatman completes the journey to lakeside just 20 minutes away.

Nature was the inspiration of The Retreat from its hand cut stone, slate, timber, marble and mud construction to its conch-shell shaped design where every room has its own view of the lake and mountains.

Comfort is complete with lounge and bedroom furnishings, carpets, power supply, a complete kitchen marble top benches and fresh spring water plus house servants to assist with meals & laundry as required.

The Retreat offers two stories and four bedrooms whilst the top floor is a 360 degree view meditation room with a private balcony. Overall it accommodates 6-8 people comfortably and includes a lounge room, dining room, indoor / outdoor bathroom, kitchen and pantry plus servants quarters. Fully furnished The Retreat just awaits you.
